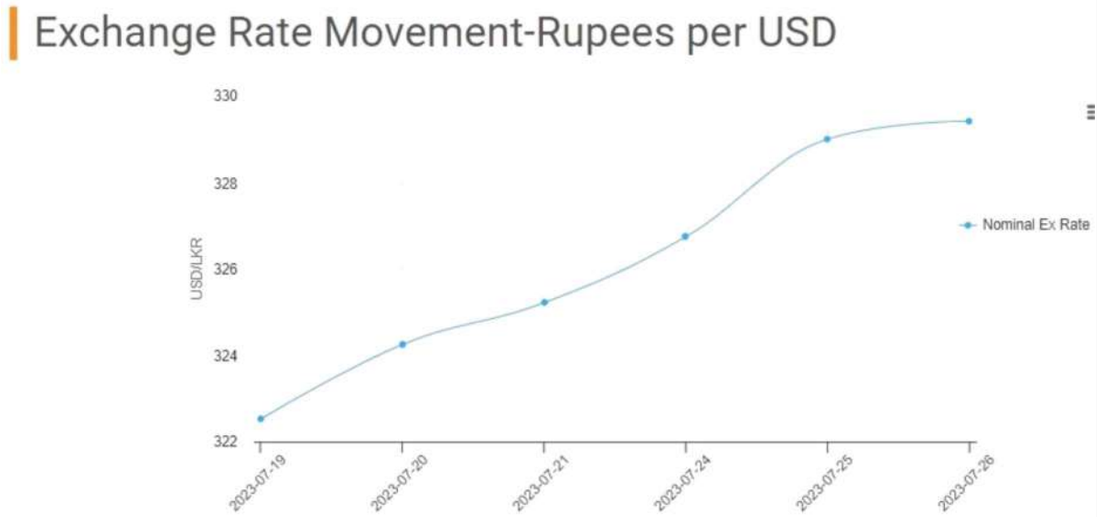
QUALITY

A small selection of Westerns were improved, whilst the others together with the Nuwara Eliyas showed no change. A few Uvas showed signs of seasonal improvement, whilst the others together with the Low Growns were similar to last.

COMMENTS

Total auction offerings showed a further decline and totalled 5.8 M/Kgs vis-à-vis 6.0 M/Kgs the previous week. Low Grown Large Leaf teas met with improved demand, whilst the High & Mid Grown Small Leaf teas declined in value.

Ex-Estate offerings were similar to last and totalled 0.9 M/Kgs. Sellers' expectations following the weakening of the Sri Lankan Rupee did not materialise and it was disheartening to observe a general decline in rupee tea prices.



Best Western BOP's declined Rs. 100 per kg and substantially more for last week's select high-priced teas. Corresponding BOPF's too followed a similar trend with a few select invoices selling around last week's levels, whilst a majority declined Rs. 50-100 per kg and more for select high-priced teas of the previous week. In the Below Best category, a few select improved BOP's were firm and up to Rs. 50 per kg dearer following special inquiry, whilst the others declined by a similar margin and more. Corresponding BOPF's followed a similar trend with a small selection of teas selling firm, whilst the others declined by Rs. 50-100 per kg. Prices at the lower end of the market remained firm. Nuwara Eliyas' were mostly unsold due to a lack of suitable bids. Uda Pussellawas' were barely steady. Uva seasonal BOP/BOPF's met with selective demand and sold between Rs. 1,000- 1,600 per kg, whilst the others sold around last week's levels.

High & Mid Grown CTC teas - BP1's were generally firm. Select PF1's were firm and dearer, whilst the others tended easier. Corresponding Low Grown varieties - BP1's were firm, whilst the PF1's gained Rs. 100-150 per kg.

Low Growns comprised of 2.3 M/Kgs. Leafy, Semi-Leafy and Tippy teas met with good demand.

In the Leafy catalogues, well-made OP1/BOP1's maintained. Below Best too followed a similar trend, whilst the balance were easier. Few select Best OP/OPA's maintained, whilst the balance declined. Well-made PEK/PEK1's appreciated. Best and Below Best varieties were firm, whilst teas at the bottom appreciated.

In the Tippy catalogues, select Best FBOP's were firm to dearer. Best sold around last levels, whilst the Below Best and teas at the bottom appreciated. Select Best FF1's were firm, whilst the Best varieties were irregular. Below Best and cleaner teas at the bottom appreciated, whilst the balance sold around last levels.

In the Premium catalogues, very Tippy teas met with good demand and were dearer. Best and Below Best varieties sold around last levels. Few cleaner teas at the bottom were firm, whilst the balance eased.

NOTE

Next week's Auction (Sale No. 30) is scheduled on Monday, 31 July and Wednesday, 2 August 2023.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is with profound sadness that we inform you of the demise of Mr. Merrill J. Fernando, Chairman of Forbes & Walker (Pvt) Ltd and the MJF Group. Mr. Fernando leaves behind an extraordinary legacy built on passion, quality, integrity and an unmatched love for Ceylon Tea and his demise marks the end of an era for the tea world.

Dilmah Ceylon Tea Company was founded by Mr. Fernando in 1988 and is synonymous with quality pure 'Ceylon Tea'. Dilmah was born of a dream to build a brand from tea grown exclusively in Sri Lanka not only to celebrate the quality and flavour, but also recognise the toil of the people creating the product. The greatness of the visionary founder of Dilmah, was in his invincible faith, his integrity and love for tea & humanity.

His humble, rural Sri Lankan beginnings and Christian family values that surrounded him defined his life.Hailing from the village of Pallansena, Negombo, Mr. Merrill J. Fernando devoted his life to tea. Over three decades later, Dilmah is one of the leading tea companies in Sri Lanka and a world-renowned brand. Its philosophy – business is a matter of human service – is synonymous with the world's first ethically produced tea brand. He also created opportunities and showcased it to the world merging Dilmah into a brand that promoted not just tea, but the whole of Sri Lanka – a resplendent country.

He was also relentless in fighting against efforts of compromise, or adulteration of his beloved Ceylon Tea. The reasons for his uncompromising defence for quality were rooted in his belief for integrity, and value addition as the only means of benefiting workers and the future of Ceylon Tea. His remarkable contributions to the tea industry and commitment to sustainability will be remembered & cherished.

It was Mr. Fernando's dream to use the profits of his brand to better the lives of the less affluent, which led to the founding of the MJF Foundation and he was well-known for his philanthropic endeavours.

The MJF Group's association with Forbes & Walker in the year 2000 brought about a new lease of life to the 142-year-old broking company together with stability and direction. Business values and commitment to excellence was always at the forefront of discussions. In subsequent years, Mr. Fernando inculcated in the Forbes & Walker Group of Companies the importance of sharing profits with the less fortunate, which is practiced to this day.

His passion, devotion, commitment, love, and kindness will forever inspire us to continue to strive for the excellence he always demanded. He would be remembered by the tea industry as an ethical businessman, iconic teamaker and a visionary leader.

BANGLADESH AUCTION

SALE OF - 24TH JULY 2023 (SALE NO. 13)

CTC LEAF: 57,255 packages of Current Season teas on offer met with a good demand.

BROKENS: All good Brokens were a good market and were generally firm to a little easier. Other varieties were also a good market and sold at around last rates. BLF teas met with much less demand at easier rates with heavy withdrawals.

FANNINGS: Good Fannings met with a good market but were a little easier whilst their Medium and Plain varieties were fully firm. BLF teas met with much less demand at easier rates with heavy withdrawals.

CTC DUST: 15,839 packages of Current Season teas on offer met with fair demand with some withdrawals. Good liquoring Dusts had fair demand and sold Tk.5/- to Tk.10/- below last levels and had some withdrawals. Mediums sold Tk.5/- to Tk. 10/- less than last with some withdrawals. Plain and BLFs were an easier market and sold Tk.5/- to Tk.10/- below last levels. Blenders were fairly active whilst Loose tea buyers were selective.

COMMENTS: Offerings were the largest this week in this season which met with good support particularly from the Blenders. Loose tea buyers were also active especially for the clean, well made varieties. Dusts were an easier market with some withdrawals.
